SEPTEMBER TV HIGHLIGHTS

How did Hurricane Maria impact Connecticut?

September marks four years since Hurricane Maria devastated Puerto Rico, and brought thousands of island residents to Connecticut. Who has stayed? What has kept them here? Who has left, and why? What are the challenges, traumas, and hopefully points of joy that have characterized their lives over the past few years?

CUTLINE: Four Years After Hurricane Maria features the faces and voices of Puerto Ricans still wrestling with the effects of this catastrophic event.

Premieres Thursday, September 16 8 p.m. on CPTV

Celtic Thunder: Ireland

Wednesday, September 1 8 p.m. on CPTV

Return to the songs that launched Celtic Thunder into the hearts of viewers across the U.S. The wonderful arrangements of the ensemble numbers reflect the power of the soloists, and feature songs that celebrate Celtic heritage.

Great Performances

Roots of Latin Jazz

Friday, September 17 8 p.m. on Spirit

Celebrate the rhythms of Latin music with the Raices Jazz Orchestra and performances by GRAMMY-winning artists including Richard Bona and Anaadi. Hosted by Sheila E.

With Dad

Tuesday, September 21 9 p.m. on Spirit

Filmmaker Søren Sørensen chronicles the work of American photographer Stephen DiRado, during the painful 20-year period of his father’s decline and eventual death from Alzheimer’s disease.

SEPTEMBER RADIO HIGHLIGHTS

Women’s Rights Rollback: The New Frontier

A century after the ratification of the Nineteenth Amendment giving women the right to vote, the uncertainty that foreshadowed the suffrage victory foreshadows the precariousness of women’s rights. “Finish the Fight!”, a rallying cry from the battle to win the final battle of the women’s voting rights movement once again characterizes the ongoing struggle for full gender equality and is the focus of the show’s ninth episode. The guests discuss the history of the women’s movement and the hurdles that remain.

Premieres Sunday, September 26 6 p.m. on CPTV
