SHEFF v. O’NEILL
Striving Toward Education Equity

The Sheff v. O’Neill lawsuit, and its resulting school integration programs, offer a unique and compelling look into critical societal issues as lived by Connecticut families. In recent years, more than half of Hartford’s students still attend low-performing Hartford schools, prompting a recent lawsuit challenging the underpinnings of Sheff. CUTLINE: Sheff v. O’Neill offers a look into how lives have been changed as a result of the case, and its impact on students and their families.
