NEW SEASON!
MASTERPIECE
MISS SCARLET & THE DUKE

Sunday, January 7 at 8 p.m. on CPTV

Eliza has taken over the business of Nash & Sons (not that he has any sons) and things are not going entirely smoothly, although help comes from some familiar sources. Outside of work, her relationship with William (the Duke) builds towards a looming decision that will shape both their lives.

where

Spotlighting Museums in the Region

Where We Live puts a spotlight on museums and the many ways they're rethinking their relationship with their artifacts, and the communities they serve. The new Yale Peabody Museum will be featured throughout the winter and spring, and began with a sneak-preview of Mohamad Hafez's exhibit, "Eternal Cities," recently installed alongside the museum's Babylonian collection. Hafez, pictured above, shows his son his artwork.

Great Performances From Vienna: The New Year's Celebration 2024

Monday, January 1
8 p.m. on CPTV

Ring in the New Year with the Vienna Philharmonic at the world-famous Musikverein, with PBS favorite Hugh Bonneville returning as host for a fifth year. The celebrations also showcase the virtuosic dancing of the Vienna City Ballet.

Nature
Big Little Journeys: Home

Wednesday, January 10
8 p.m. on CPTV

Small animals, even tiny ones, must sometimes make epic journeys to find a home or a mate. While the distances may not seem monumental to us, to these little creatures the journey is monumental. Meet six heroic, tiny travelers risking it all to complete big journeys against the odds.

Antiques Roadshow at Old Sturbridge Village

Monday, January 29
8 p.m. on CPTV

Season 28 travels to Sturbridge, MA where an appraisal of a 1942 Ted Williams game-worn Boston Red Sox home jersey, one of the earliest known, has a grand slam valuation with a season-topping $500,000 value!
